You can try your hand at the classics like mousse or panna cotta, or you can come up with your own recipe using the best ingredients available. Making a pudding is easier than you might think. Take a look at our collection of sweet recipes to get started. Apple Crisp 1 recipe 9-inch All-Bran © Apple Crisp (from here) 1 recipe Caramel Sauce 1 recipe Brown Sugar and Egg Wash (from here) Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Mash 2 teaspoons sugar into each of 2 medium baking dishes. Cut 6 apples in half and scoop out the cores. In one baking dish, arrange the apples, cut side up. In the other baking dish, arrange the apples cut side down. Spoon caramel sauce on top of each serving. Bake in preheated oven.,50 to 60 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 5 to 10 minutes. Serve each dessert topped with Brown Sugar and Egg Wash. Baking from scratch takes a little planning and time, but the rewards are well worth it. To avoid making a mess, you might want to stick to one recipe at a time, and arrange the apples or other components in a pan to keep everything together. For a tasty, customizable variation, try making this recipe with seasonal fruits, or by substituting fruit juice for the water and adding different flavorings. Another idea: To ensure the apples don't dry out in the oven, place slices of butter in the apples before baking.UW-Madison: Residents of Madison are encouraged to sign up now for the UW-Madison Electric Vehicle to be used in campus transit and parking Madison. 82157476af
